

2019 Men's NCAA Championship – Stockton, California

Congratulations to all the referees that were selected to whistle the 2019 Men's NCAA Championship, but most of all thank you to each and every referee that worked games this season. Your commitment and dedication to our craft and the game we all love is greatly appreciated.

The following referees whistled the Opening Round Games:

Harvard vs Bucknell

Josh Kratz
Scott Voltz

Bucknell vs USC

Danielle Dabbaghian
Darren Spiritosanto

UC Davis vs Pepperdine

Joe Peila
Steven Rotsart

Below are the referees that worked the Final Four:

USC vs Stanford

Danielle Dabbaghian
Joe Peila

Pepperdine vs UOP

Steven Rotsart
Alex Stankevitch

\*goal judges – Jeff Bergman & Marshall Grim*

And for the Championship Game:

UOP vs Stanford

Steven Rotsart

Alex Stankevitch

Special thank you to Jim Cullingham, Alan Korsgaden and Ed Reed for their invaluable assistance over the course of the weekend and the season.

We are all looking forward to returning to Stockton in the spring for the 2020 Women's NCAA Championship. Until then, enjoy the holiday season and enjoy the brief break from the college game.

Amber Drury

NCAA Coordinator of Officials – Water Polo